
Study Questions

- 1) Read Romans 1:17. From where does righteousness come according to this verse? Was this true in the past, before Paul?

- 2) The Jews had God-life through the Law. Where did the Gentiles find a “law unto themselves” also written? Is the conscience always reliable? Why or why not?

- 3) Kim, in her role-playing with Dominic, used the idea of marriage to help illustrate the superiority of living from out of a love relationship as opposed to living from the legalistic expectations of the other partner. In other words, Grace compared to living from the the Law. What might these two approaches look like when lived out in a marriage?

- 4) Paul explained that In order for us to be free from the judgement of violating the Law’s requirements regarding adultery, there must be a death. Whose death accomplished for us the breaking of the chains of the Law and freed us to live a life of love for God?

- 5) How does Jesus’ death set us free when we are “born again”? What does this mean and how does the Spirit in us help us to now relate to God in confidence and love rather, than fear of punishment? Have you been born again? What stops you from asking for this free gift?